Article 15 - Responsibilities of the assignee

1. Upon receiving a room, each student must check the condition and sign a receipt report, which indicates the furniture provided, the state of it and of the lodgings.
2. The assignee must promptly report any detected faults or anomalies in the facilities, systems and furniture. The assignee is obliged to pay compensation for damages caused to third parties or to environments, systems or furniture, due to causes ascribable to him.
3. The sleeping accommodation assignee is required to report contagious diseases certified by medical staff that involve risks for normal cohabitation. In the presence of certain diseases, IMT can temporarily suspend the use of the bed/lodgings until the complete recovery, which must be certified

Article 14 – Ways of using the hospitality services

1. The assignment of the sleeping accommodation to students in the university residence is strictly personal. The assignee can only use it for the use it was assigned for and cannot let others use it. Students cannot host third parties even on a temporary basis.
2. The assignee of the sleeping accommodation in the residence or in the guesthouse is personally responsible for what occurs in the areas provided for their exclusive use, including all the equipment and furniture.
3. The assignee receives the room assigned to them with the obligation to return it in the condition they received it, apart from natural wear and tear.

Article 18 - Checks and verifications

1. IMT has a copy of the keys/badges to access the rooms where the beds are located. For unavoidable checks on systems or urgent and/or non-routine repairs or maintenance, access is allowed to the assigned staff even in the absence of the user and without notice.
2. IMT has the right to check inside the rooms, flats and common areas during the presence of the assignee, in their absence, upon prior notification in the event of an urgency, and at the end of the assignment period, to check the assignees have complied with the Regulations and to verify the presence and extent of any damages.
